CONDITIONS OF AWARD

1. INTRODUCTION

Each year the ANU College of Business and Economics ('the College') may offer an award known as the ANU College of Business and Economics Undergraduate Scholarship for Aboriginal or Torres Strait Islanders ('the Award').

The objective of the Award is to provide encouragement and support to Indigenous students undertaking one of the undergraduate coursework programs at the ANU College of Business and Economics.

Funding for this Award has been provided by the ANU College of Business and Economics.

2. BENEFITS

The value of the Award is stated in your letter of offer. The duration of the Award is for up to four years of full-time study (maximum of 192 units). The Award payment will align to the recipient's academic study load. For example, 24-unit enrolment constitutes 100% of the Award payment; 18-unit enrolment constitutes 75% of the Award payment, etc. The Award is paid at the beginning of each semester unless otherwise stated in the letter of offer.

The recipient is responsible for making payment of all tuition fees by the prescribed date as set out by the University each session. Recipients of the Award are responsible for the costs of books, study materials, accommodation and all other costs of study.

3. ELIGIBILITY

The Award is available each year to a commencing ANU student who:

- (a) is an Australian citizen; and
- (b) is of Aboriginal or Torres Strait Islander (ATSI) descent; and
- (c) identifies as an Australian Aboriginal or Torres Strait Islander person; and
- (d) is accepted as such by the community in which they live, or formerly lived; and
- (e) is a current school leaver; and
- (f) receives an offer of admission and will enrol in an undergraduate coursework program offered by the College.

4. APPLICATION

All applicants applying for admission through the ANU Admission Scholarship and Accommodation Application System will be automatically considered for the Award based on them meeting the eligibility criteria and electing to be considered for scholarships.

5. SELECTION

Only applicants who meet all the eligibility criteria will be considered. Selection is made on the basis of academic merit.

The Award is offered to a student by the University Coursework Scholarships Committee. Details of this committee are outlined in the ANU Coursework Scholarships procedure.

The selection committee reserves the right to make no award if it considers there is no applicant of sufficient merit. The selection committee may also vary the number of Awards and/or offer the Award at other times in exceptional circumstances or based on the standard of applications or students (where funds allow).

6. CONCURRENT HOLDING OF AWARDS

A recipient of the Award is permitted to hold concurrent student financial awards as outlined in the ANU coursework scholarships, grants and bursaries procedure.

7. DEFERMENT

The Award cannot be deferred.

8. ONGOING ELIGIBILITY

A recipient of this Award may enrol in a full-time (18 to 24 units) or a part-time load (minimum 6 units) per semester. Recipients are expected to pass in all courses each semester or session.

If a recipient is unable to pass all enrolled courses in any semester a formal warning is sent.

If the recipient does not pass all enrolled courses in a subsequent semester they risk having their Award suspended or terminated.

A recipient is given the opportunity to explain their performance and how their performance can be remedied before a decision on the suspension or termination of an Award is made.

9. CESSATION OF AWARD

The Award ceases or should be surrendered:

- (a) if a student no longer meets the eligibility requirements;

11. PROVIDING FALSE OR MISLEADING INFORMATION

Selection for the Award is based on the information provided to the University. The Award may be withdrawn at any stage if incorrect, false or misleading information is provided or relevant information is withheld. This includes circumstances where the false information is unrelated to the assessment for the Award.

12. TAXATION

Recipients are responsible for seeking independent taxation advice regarding their own individual circumstances. Student financial awards are regarded as taxable income if a recipient is enrolled on a part-time basis.
