MOON SCHOLARSHIP FOR WOMEN IN ECONOMICS

CONDITIONS OF AWARD

1. INTRODUCTION

Every three to five years the ANU College of Business and Economics ('the College') may offer an award known as the Moon Scholarship for Women in Economics ('the Award').

The objective of the Award is to attract high calibre domestic students who identify as women to enrol in the Bachelor of Economics program offered by the Research School of Economics.

Funding for this Award has been provided by ANU Alumna Sheryle Moon, a recognised practitioner, executive and coach (individual and organisation) in a diverse range of sectors including ICT, recruitment, retail, defence and government. Sheryle is a passionate advocate for the growth and career progression of women.

2. BENEFITS

The value of the Award is stated in your letter of offer. The duration of the Award is for up to three years of full-time study (maximum of 144 units). The Award payment will align to the recipient's academic study load. For example, 24 units' enrolment constitutes 100% award payment; 18 units' enrolment constitutes 75% award payment, etc. The Award is paid in equal instalments after census date each semester unless otherwise stated in the letter of offer.

The recipient is responsible for making payment of all tuition fees by the prescribed date as set out by the University each session. Recipients of the Award are responsible for the costs of books, study materials, accommodation and all other costs of study.

3. ELIGIBILITY

The Award is available to a commencing ANU student who:

- (a) is a domestic student; and
- (b) receives an offer of admission to and will enrol in the Bachelor of Economics offered by the College; and
- (c) is a current school leaver in Australia at an Australian High School (or College); and
- (d) identifies as a woman.

4. APPLICATION

All applicants applying for admission through the ANU Admission Scholarship and Accommodation Application System will be automatically considered for the Award based on them meeting the eligibility criteria and electing to be considered for scholarships.

Where there are no eligible direct applicants or where the pool of eligible direct applicants has been exhausted, the Award may be offered to an eligible student applying for admission via the University Admissions Centre (UAC).

5. SELECTION

Selection is made on the basis of applicants meeting the eligibility criteria and academic merit. If there are more equally-ranked eligible applicants than there are Awards available, applicants will be ranked according to (in order of priority):

- Severity of financial disadvantage
- Lowest SEIFA
- Total adjustment factors
- Lowest ICSEA

The Award is offered to a student by the University Coursework Scholarships Committee. Details of this committee are outlined in the ANU Coursework Scholarships procedure.

The College reserves the right to make no award if it considers there is no applicant of sufficient merit. The College may also vary the number of Awards and/or offer the Award at other times in exceptional circumstances or based on the standard of applications or students (where funds allow).

6. CONCURRENT HOLDING OF AWARDS

A recipient of the Award is permitted to hold concurrent student financial awards as outlined in the ANU Coursework Scholarships procedure.

If approved, payments of the Award will be made on a pro-rata basis.

Recipients are expected to maintain a Grade Point Average (GPA) of 5.0 or above each semester (with the average being across all courses taken in a particular semester or session/s overlapping that semester).

If a recipient is unable to achieve the GPA in any semester a formal warning is sent.

If the recipient does not meet the required GPA in a subsequent semester they risk having their Award suspended or terminated.
