POWELL MEMORIAL SCHOLARSHIP CONDITIONS OF AWARD

1. INTRODUCTION

In 2022, the ANU School of Music ('the School'), College of Arts and Social Sciences ('the College') may offer an award known as the Powell Memorial Scholarship ('the Award').

The objective of the Award is to increase access and provide opportunities for students undertaking undergraduate study at the School.

Funding for this Award has been provided by Tessa Ivison in memory of her partner Maxine Powell. Maxine was an alumna of the School of Music and remembered her time at the ANU and the school fondly.

2. BENEFITS

The value of the Award is stated in your letter of offer. The duration of the Award is for the duration for the degree program up to four years. The Award is paid in equal instalments after census date each semester unless otherwise stated in the letter of offer.

The recipient is responsible for making payment of all tuition fees by the prescribed date as set out by the University each session. Recipients of the Award are responsible for the costs of books, study materials, accommodation and all other costs of study.

3. ELIGIBILITY

The Award is available in 2022 to a prospective or current domestic ANU student who:

- (a) is an Australian citizen, permanent resident or permanent humanitarian visa holder; and
- (b) receives an offer of admission to or is enrolled in an undergraduate program offered by the School; and
- (c) is experiencing financial hardship.

4. APPLICATION

The application is submitted on the prescribed form. Any requirement for supporting documentation and forwarding details will be stated on the application form and/or ANU Scholarships website. The application and all supporting documentation (where applicable) must be submitted on or prior to the closing date published on the ANU scholarships website.

5. SELECTION

Selection is made on the basis of severity of financial disadvantage. Preference may be given to (in order of priority):

- Applicants from a rural, regional or remote area
- Humanitarian visa holders
- Aboriginal or Torres Strait Islander applicants

The Award is offered to a student by a selection committee chaired by the Head of the School of Music, which will also include the relevant area Convenor and one other academic staff member from the School.

The selection committee reserves the right to make no award if it considers there is no applicant of sufficient merit. The selection committee may also vary the number of Awards and/or offer the Award at other times in exceptional circumstances or based on the standard of applications or students (where funds allow).

6. CONCURRENT HOLDING OF AWARDS

A recipient of the Award is permitted to hold concurrent student financial awards as outlined in the ANU Coursework Scholarships procedure.

7. DEFERMENT

The Award cannot be deferred.

8. ONGOING ELIGIBILITY

A recipient of this Award is required to remain enrolled. If enrolled part-time, payments of the Award will be made on a pro-rata basis.

Recipients are expected to maintain a Grade Point Average (GPA) of 4.0 or above each semester (with the average being across all courses taken in a particular semester or session/s overlapping that semester).

If a recipient is unable to achieve the GPA in any semester a formal warning is sent.

If the recipient does not meet the required GPA in a subsequent semester they risk having their Award suspended or terminated.

A recipient is given the opportunity to explain their performance and how their performance can be remedied before a decision on the suspension or termination of an Award is made.

9. CESSATION OF AWARD

The Award ceases or should be surrendered:

- (a) if a student no longer meets the eligibility requirements;

11. PROVIDING FALSE OR MISLEADING INFORMATION
