

TERRELL INTERNATIONAL UNDERGRADUATE SCHOLARSHIP

CONDITIONS OF AWARD

1. INTRODUCTION

Each year the Australian National University ("the University") may offer a number of awards known as the Terrell International Undergraduate Scholarship ("the award").

The objective of the award is to reward and support International students who have performed at an outstanding level academically in their first year of study at the University.

Funding for this award has been provided by the University. The award commemorates the contribution of Professor R D Terrell has made to international relations and international student affairs.

2. BENEFITS

The value of the award is stated in your letter of offer. The duration of the award is the remaining duration of the scholar's undergraduate program up to a maximum of four years. The award is applied to the recipient's tuition fees at the beginning of each semester unless otherwise stated in the letter of offer.

The recipient is responsible for making payment of the balance of tuition by the prescribed date as set out by the University each session. Recipients of this award are responsible for the costs of books, study materials, accommodation and all other costs of study.

3. ELIGIBILITY

The award is available each year to a current ANU student who:

- (a) is an International student;
- (b) is enrolled in a Bachelor's degree program at the University;
- (c) has completed up to, and no more than, two semesters (48 units) at the University and will enrol into their second year;
- (d) has achieved excellent results during their first two semesters at the University.

Transferring students are not eligible.

4. APPLICATION

There is no application as students are automatically considered based on them meeting the eligibility criteria or conditions prescribed under the Eligibility section.

5. SELECTION

Selection is made on the basis of applicants meeting the eligibility criteria. Students will be ranked based on their career GPA across their first two semesters at the University. Where multiple students have an identical GPA, final rankings will be based on WAM (weighted average mark) across the first two semesters of study at the University.

Awarding of the scholarship will be approved by the Registrar, Student Administration & Academic Services.

The University reserves the right to make no award if it considers there is no applicant of sufficient merit. The University may also vary the number of awards and/or offer the award at other times in exceptional circumstances or based on the standard of applications or students (where funds allow).

6. CONCURRENT HOLDING OF AWARDS

A recipient of the Terrell International Undergraduate Scholarship is permitted to hold concurrent scholarships as outlined in the ANU Coursework Scholarships procedure.

7. DEFERMENT

The award cannot be deferred.

8. ONGOING ELIGIBILITY

A recipient of this award is required to enrol in a full-time load of 24 units per semester. A recipient requests permission, in writing, from the Dean of Students to hold the award on a part-time basis. If approved, payments of the award will be made on a pro-rata basis.

Recipients are expected to maintain a Grade Point Average (GPA) of 5.0 or above each semester (with the average being across all courses taken in a particular semester or session/s overlapping that semester).

If a recipient is unable to achieve the GPA in any semester a formal warning is sent.

If the recipient does not meet the required GPA in a subsequent semester they risk having their award suspended or terminated.

A recipient is given the opportunity to explain their performance and how their performance can be remedied before a decision on the suspension or termination of an award is made.
